Dear Sir:

We are very desirous of obtaining a specimen of the decoration of the St.Patrick Society for our Museum, and Mr. Henry R. Drowne has suggested our writing to you with regard to the matter. If you would kindly inform us as to the best procedure to secure a copy of this medal, we should greatly appreciate your courtesy and co-operation.

Very truly yours,

Curator

New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Simmons:

I am in receipt of your letter of May 1st.

The medal or badge of the Society is made by Tiffany & Company upon the order of the Secretary, and the charge for this badge is $18.00.

If you want a copy of the badge for your friend, I would be glad to have Tiffany & Company to make it up. It would take about ten days or two weeks to do this.

Yours very truly,

J F Higgins

Corresponding Secretary.
